Eldress Wandra Williams serves as the Pastor of Hull Road FWB Church, where she is also a lifelong member. She is an ordained Eldress in the NWB Conference of the United American Free Will Baptist Denomination under the leadership of Bishop J.E. Reddick and serves on the investigation committee for the NWB Conference.

She is a Christian blogger and the founder of Wandra Williams Ministries. She holds a B.S. degree in Business Administration & Computer Information Systems, a Master's in Education degree in Instructional Technology, and an Educational Specialist degree in Educational Technology. She also holds a Master's Degree in Christian Ministry with a concentration in Pastoral Counseling from Liberty University. She is a Lenoir County native, happily married to Minister Troy Williams and together they have been blessed with 6 children. She and her family reside in Kinston, NC.

Eldress Williams loves God and she loves people. Her preaching and teaching style are practical and prolific. She's grateful that God does indeed give beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning and the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness. Jesus is the center of her joy, and she is thankful for the Lord's help and favor. She firmly believes that only what we do for Christ will last and pleasing Him is what matters most.
